

Introduction

ArtWorks is an organisation aimed at supporting and promoting local professional artists by offering them opportunities to display and sell their work. We are based at the ArtWorks Gallery – 16 Chapel Square, Aberdyfi. Our Gallery, which only exhibits the work of ArtWorks members, offers flexible exhibition space that can be 'booked' by members each financial year (April – March).

Our philosophy is that of sharing and inclusion – artists who join ArtWorks are part of a team who support each other. Unlike normal commercial galleries, the ArtWorks organisation is not aimed at being a profit making business. Members share in the costs of the gallery, share in the responsibilities and therefore pay a lower commission rate than at other galleries.

We can offer different types of membership – Gallery Artists, who have a permanent display area for the year, Guest Exhibitors, who can book 4 weekly exhibitions on our guest wall and Showcase displays for certain complimentary creations such as books, ceramics and jewellery. Our Gallery Artists also share the stewarding commitments, giving them an opportunity to meet and talk with potential customers which benefits both the artists and visitors alike. For this reason, our other exhibitors are also encouraged to spend time in the Gallery if possible.

All ArtWorks members, whether they are displaying in the gallery or not, are allocated a page on the ArtWorks website to display and promote their work, through which the Gallery is able to conduct on line sales of members' work on their behalf during Gallery opening hours. In addition, members are also able to utilise our credit card payment facility for gallery, online and private sales.

To maintain the high standard of artwork we display and to ensure that we have a good variety of work in our exhibitions, artists need to apply to join ArtWorks by showing us samples of their work, for us to consider. If successful at this stage, artists may be invited to display initially as a 'Guest Exhibitor' for a period of 4 weeks as well as assisting in the stewarding, a valuable way for both us and the artist to gain feedback about their work from the public. They will also benefit from a feature in our newsletter and on our website, launching their preview.

Artists who are offered membership will be able to consider any currently available spaces within the gallery in order to discuss and make decisions on where and when they would like to display their work. Spaces are always allocated on suitability, with each space being available for renewing/booking at the end of the financial year. Membership to ArtWorks is free, however because of the size and layout of the gallery it is not always possible for all of our members to have exhibition space. Members who would like to be considered for future space when it becomes available are added to our waiting list.

If you have any questions then please feel free to get in touch.

Membership & Display Fees

ArtWorks Membership

Membership is free, but by invitation only. This includes your own website page on the ArtWorks website, inclusion in articles in the regular newsletters in order to promote yourself and your work, telephone sales by the gallery of your work, the option to rent space in the ArtWorks Aberdyfi gallery and access to the credit card facilities for any sales of your work including private sales.

ArtWorks Aberdyfi Gallery Display:

For Gallery and Showcase Artists, we can offer a variety of walls, corners, shelves and cabinets to accommodate your needs. The rental fees are calculated based on the size of the area the member takes. Fees are payable in advance and are paid by standing order each month.

In addition, our 'Guest Wall' is available to rent for various 4 week slots throughout the year. Our Guest Artist is given a preview evening at the start of their exhibition. Prices for these slots are available on application.

Please note that space sizes, locations and design of exhibition areas are affected by the layout of the gallery, and therefore it is not always possible for the member to dictate exactly the wall size they require. Our aim is to help you find the best way to promote your work, and so we would be happy to discuss your particular requirements when choosing a display area. This includes the provision by ArtWorks of various fixtures and fittings for display purposes.

Commission & Charges

Any sale that ArtWorks makes on behalf of an artist is chargeable at 12% commission. This can include sales made in the gallery and sales conducted over the telephone, via email or through the website.

Sales made privately by the artist, even through contacts made at the gallery are not chargeable.

General rule – if it goes through our till, we take 12%.

Promotion

As well as customers being able to view your work at our Gallery and on our website, ArtWorks sends out a monthly newsletter via email to its list of subscribers. Members are asked to assist in adding names to this list. Subscribers are invited to all ArtWorks previews, held every 4 weeks.

Members may choose to promote their art and art related activities with flyers/business cards on their display in the Gallery and on our website. This can include courses that they run, their own website or other exhibitions in which they are involved. We will endeavour to also include any art related news stories submitted by members in our newsletter.

Opening Hours & Stewarding Commitments

Gallery Opening:

The Gallery aims to open 7 days a week all year round (excluding Christmas Day). Opening hours are from 11.00am-5.00pm daily.

It may be possible for telephone credit card sales to be undertaken outside these hours or for members to arrange special opening times of the Gallery for a particular customer or a specific purpose. Please agree any requirements you have with us before making any arrangements.

Stewarding Commitments:

We try to be as flexible as we can with stewarding, as we understand that our members will have other commitments. It is important, however, that the gallery is open as advertised and so we expect all our members to honour their stewarding requirements fully. Members should also bear in mind that spending time in the gallery is beneficial to both yourself as an artist and to visitors and can ultimately boost your sales.

All Gallery Artists are required to undertake 1 day every 2 weeks in the gallery as the steward. Guest and Showcase Exhibitors, whilst not expected to undertake stewarding, are encouraged to be in the gallery when possible.

In the spirit of our philosophy of support for each other, members are asked to be flexible in the stewarding arrangements and to also consider helping other members should stewarding commitments become difficult due to unforeseen circumstances.

Insurance

Whilst we take reasonable care to ensure the safety of our members' art work from theft or damage, ArtWorks cannot take any responsibility for any art work that is hung in the gallery. The Gallery at Aberdyfi is covered for public liability and basic contents only. Our insurance does NOT cover art work at its retail value. We strongly advise that members arrange their own specialist art insurance for any items on display or in storage at these premises.
